

Sinclair's decision to use its stations to air a program about any Presidential candidate is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. The fact that it will be inflammatory against Senator Kerry does not set a good example of democracy in work to other countries. Now more than ever we need to show the world that we hold free and honest elections.

this example of Sinclair's actions show why we need stronger media ownership rules.

Let's make the license renewal process a real test, not just an automatic renewal regardless of how one operates their stations. Thank you.
